

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

FRIDAY, : : : : MAY 7, 1860.

Local Items.

Short communications on public questions printed, but not responsible for sentiments or expressions of course, or for what we value, or lose, name of author.

The streets of Mayfield are being lined with shade trees.

Several men were killed in the Creek county last week.

The best Church & Co., SODA, 10 pound packages, at Fortune's.

Col. W. S. Stope, of Owingsboro, has been elected Warden of the penitentiary.

Col. W. S. Stope, of Owingsboro, has been elected Warden of the penitentiary.

Our colored friends are making arrangements for a big picnic on the 27th inst.

Editor W. L. Butler will preside at the Christian Church next Lord's day at 11 a. m. at the First Church, and Editor J. H. Knobell, at 8 o'clock a. m.

COAT & GOWELL 20 cents a gallon, at BUCK & COWELL.

The long and tedious of the Kentucky Legislature has at last come to an end. It was a great deal of time, but got in some good work toward the close.

The school children of Paducah have just passed through a series of scarier fever and measles, and now they are on the mend.

OUR PRECIOUS FRIEND, J. W. Rogers, is now receiving a splendid load of fresh Groceries, which is offered for sale at the lowest price.

The Sunday fair is being pushed to extremity in Louisville. By and by the course will put a compass rolling or interpretation on the law, and then we shall know what is to be done.

The old Fulton Fair grounds are offered for sale. Meers, Dr. R. Nichols and R. T. Tyler, are the ones empowered to sell. There is movement to get up a new association, with grounds under town.

BEST OF WHISKY.

The best grades of Kentucky, kept at reasonable prices, by J. W. Rogers.

The members of the Methodist San day School prepare enjoying a May picnic somewhere along the hills, next Saturday in Frankfort, to which everybody is invited. We wish the little folks a pleasant day.

Parties desiring to attend in Nashville, Cynthian, or at so or at reduced rates, can do so at the Hotel Hickman, at 1500. In parties of more than 25, children between 4 and 12 years old, the above rates.

KINLOW KEROSENE.

The safest and best Coal Oil in the market, test 100. Price, 30 cents per gallon, at BUCK & COWELL.

The Mississippi, which has been its king for a week, is now on the decline, and side inroads to our bottom farmers, has now commenced to recede, and as all the uppers are falling, it must continue to fall.

The authorities of Nashville are doing their best to protect their unchristian country cousin who may visit the Confederate from the wills of the wicked. The genuine Southerners have already been raiding and robbing the Southern men here, and the above rates.

THE HICKMAN COURIER.—A party of our citizens accompanied Dr. Leslie to Cincinnati, and spent a couple of days there.

The young ladies of Hickman attended the Columbus Times regatta that Dr. Leslie, a public reception at the residence of Dr. C. H. Isham, which was a great success, and delightedly pleased.

The members of Leslie Lodge, Knights and Ladies of Honor, received Dr. Leslie with a hearty welcome, and the ladies, the Protectress of the Lodge, and responded by Dr. Leslie.

The young ladies of Hickman gave a grand reception to Dr. Leslie, in the Hotel Hickman, which was largely attended, and in every respect, perfectly conducted.

The reception of removing the Ballard county court house from Winkfield to Hickman is being celebrated. A new courthouse is to be built, and every thing is in a bustle.

Sen. S. B. Churchill, Secretary of State, has tendered his resignation to the Governor, to take effect on the adjournment of the Legislature.

LOWER AND LOWER.

ALL KINDS OF GROCERIES—NAME, SITE, & CLASP AS THE CHEAPEST. I WILL NOT, UNDERTAKE IT.

Dr. Leslie Medical Practice.

PANAMA, May 1, 1860

TO THE MEDICAL PROFESSION.

It gives me great pleasure to announce that Dr. J. W. Rogers, of the South-Western Kentucky Medical Association, will open a 12 o'clock, on May 10, a new and large office, in the rear of his residence, 1000 Main street, Louisville. A large attendance of the public, general sanitarians would be to the audience in connection with the plan of his office, and in publishing his practice.

Dr. J. W. Rogers has accepted an invitation to speak at the meeting of the Association of Law and Medicine.

TO THE MEDICAL PROFESSION.

